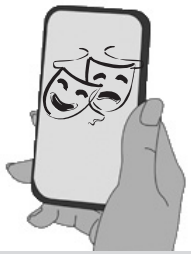
Volunteers are not paid, not because they're worthless, but because they're priceless!

Volunteering in community theatre is exciting and rewarding. There are so many tasks to be done at so many skill levels, and they all come together into the magic of the show. The cast and crew form a tight-knit community as we work hard and play hard together. Without volunteers, small theatre companies could not possibly afford to put on a show.

ENJOY THE PLAY?

We'd love to hear from you. Share your experience with us on Facebook or Twitter!

While taking photos during the performance is not allowed, snap as many selfies or photos before, during intermission or after and post them!



I hate being retired... we never have holidays to look forward to!

We appreciate all Garrison Little Theatre volunteers and local businesses that kindly display our posters!

Chuck Jagiello as MARTY

Chuck said: “It’s been a long couple of years bereft of theatre. But it is with great joy we return to the stage”. Chuck is looking forward to seeing many familiar faces in the audience.

Carole Ferriday as DEB

Carole has served in almost every capacity, on and off-stage, since joining GLT in 2007. She was last seen on our stage in 2019 as Daria Chase in The Game's Afoot, followed by Motherhood Out Loud; also as Mrs. Bradman in Blithe Spirit at the Firehall Theatre.

Carole could identify with the many changes that come with retirement, as depicted in her role as Deb, and she is sure that you will be able to relate also!

Darka Makarec as GLADYS

Darka is thrilled to be treading the boards again! What a difficult time this has been for so many, not all of us have emerged unscathed. As we share our stories in real life, we can place them gently aside to enjoy the lives on stage.
And what a timely play to be doing as she approaches retirement herself at the end of this year!
She feels honoured to be working with this talented cast and crew!

Paul Wintemute as FRED

Paul is happy to be part of this production, joining a talented cast and production crew.
He has appeared on stage in many productions in various companies in the Niagara Region and Hamilton.
After more than fifty years on stage, his favourite role is always the next one.
Paul is a Professor of Law at Niagara College and a practicing lawyer in St. Catharines.
