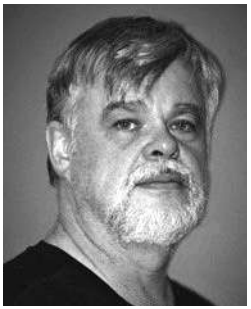
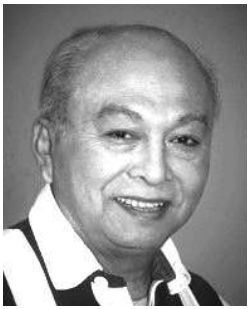
We appreciate all Garrison Little Theatre volunteers and local businesses that kindly display our posters!

Sandy Moore is thrilled to be back on the boards with this wonderful cast and crew! She has been part of GLT since 1987 and is still amazed by the calibre of talent and commitment within this group.
Sandy wants to thank Jim very much for the opportunity to be in this show!!! Also many thanks to Brenda, the stage manager, for her quiet but deadly grin, and her heartfelt gratitude goes to all of the other very gifted members in the cast and crew! Enjoy the show!!



Chuck Jagiello is happy to share the stage again with this talented cast. Last year Chuck appeared with Dave in The Game's Afoot. He has also appeared with Sandy in Hand that Cradles the Rock and Rey in Having Hope at Home. Some other favourite roles include George in Same Time Next Year (Lakeside Players), Moonface in Anything Goes (PCOS) and Yvan in Art (Firehall). Chuck started a youth theatre group, Anglican Parish Players to raise money for local women's shelters. Special thanks to Jim for the opportunity to play Craig in his directorial debut.

Dave Deelen is thrilled to be sharing the stage once again at GLT with such a wonderful cast and crew. Thanks to Jim for the opportunity to bring Allen to life; Brenda for keeping us on track and the Dead Wrong crew for sparking many a great conversation on character and development... It was a blast. Cheers!



Reynaldo Baecher has been acting since 1980 when he played the role of the bubbling houseboy "Ito" in the musical Mame. He has appeared in numerous productions with Garrison Little Theatre, his most recent were The Ginkgo Tree and Rehearsal for Murder. He turned professional in 2000, performing at Showboat Festival Theatre in Dead Guilty and The Reaper and became a member of Canadian Actors' Equity and Actra. He appeared in cameo roles in films and in principal roles in TV commercials for Lotto 649, Kellogg's and Continental Airlines and received residuals when they aired. In addition, he is an accomplished artist, a master pastellist with several national awards for his pastel paintings of ordinary glass. (www.reybaecher.com)

Director's note

Jim Kitchen

Dead Wrong represents the collective work of four very talented local actors and a host of others supporting behind the scenery to ensure a smooth production.

Rehearsals started in late November and have been like a laboratory, where character and motivation has been challenged and developed. We trust you will have as much fun watching it, as we have had putting it together.

We are always looking for community members to get involved in future productions, so welcome...in advance!

ENJOY THE SHOW?

We'd love to hear from you. Share your experience with us on Facebook or Twitter!

While taking photos during the play is prohibited, snap as many selfies or photos, before, during intermission or after and post them!

It was my story. A murder mystery.

President's message

Welcome to Garrison Little Theatre's first production of 2020, an intriguing mystery, Dead Wrong by Nick Hall.

What could be a better reason to come out into the cold winter, than to be entertained by Fort Erie's all volunteer community theatre, founded in 1986.

We are sure you will enjoy this suspenseful play - make sure to pay close attention right to the very end...
Thank you for coming, it is our pleasure to entertain you!

Carole Ferriday
President

In order to be more environmentally friendly, Garrison Little Theatre has decided to discontinue selling single-use plastic water bottles next season, beginning in November 2020.

In preparation of this change, we are pleased to offer for purchase metal water bottles, and water dispensers at the bar.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.

Volunteers are not paid.
Not because they're worthless,
but because they're priceless!

Volunteering in community theatre is exciting and rewarding. There are so many tasks to be done at so many skill levels, and they all come together into the magic of the show.

The cast and crew form a tight-knit community as we work hard and play hard together.

Without volunteers, small theatre companies could not possibly afford to put on a show.
